

The new "Do not Fax" rules will adversely affect many non-profits and the manner they advertise unique conferences and other educational events. I am involved with charitable clinics in Kentucky and am president of the Kentucky Free Health Clinic Association and these new regulations will be onerous for the organizations and clinics I represent. Please consider making an exception for non-profits. Sincerely Ann Colbert, MD